Chief Executive
Mr Ian Archer

Hon Patrons
Ms Jo Brand, Dr Phil Clark,
Mr Richard Clifford,
Mrs Monique Heijn, Sir Derek Jacobi,
Lorraine Kelly OBE,
Baroness Morris of Yardley

The Courtyard
Herefordshire's
Centre for the Arts
Edgar Street
Hereford, HR4 9JR
Admin: 01432 346500
Box Office: 01432 340555
courtyard.org.uk

Cultivate@Courtyard
Terms and Conditions

1. This competition is free to enter.
2. It is open to people aged 16-25 years on 25.06.2020 and have a link to Herefordshire.
3. Entrants must complete and sign a submission form to include their name, date of birth, the name of their school or college, their email address, their home address and contact numbers and a title of their submitted work. A submission form can be found at www.courtyard.org.uk/visualarts
4. The submission closing date is 12 noon on 20.01.2021
5. We welcome all kinds of 2D/3D art and crafts, however the submitted work cannot be larger than 1 meter squared.
6. Entrants can submit 1 piece of art/craft along with a sketchbook or drawings to provide evidence of original ideas and inspiration from the following themes: Solidarity, Epidemic, Isolation, Faith or Tomorrow
7. Entrants must have produced the work themselves.
8. All entrants agree that their entries may be shared on social media by The Courtyard, featured on www.courtyard.org.uk, and used for publicity purposes by The Courtyard.
9. All winners agree to participate in publicity related to The Courtyard 'Cultivate@Courtyard' project.
10. The Promoter (The Courtyard) reserves the right to reject entries that do not meet any of the competition criteria listed in the terms and conditions.

11. Late, illegible, incomplete, invalid, corrupt, too large (over 1 meter squared), or entries beyond the permitted number, will not be accepted.

12. The Promoter does not accept responsibility for entries lost, damaged or delayed.

13. Entries can be delivered to

    The Courtyard, Hereford Centre for the Arts,
    Edgar Street, Hereford HR4 9JR

    However, anyone wishing to drop of their work in person must pre-arrange this by emailing daivd.durant@courtyard.org.uk

14. Entries cannot be returned or stored by The Courtyard. However, entrants are provided with the opportunity to collect their work. This will be arranged after the successful applicants have been selected.

15. The judging panel will consist of individuals nominated by The Courtyard with at least two members of the judging panel, persons not employed by The Courtyard. Entries will be judged anonymously. Since entries are anonymised, relatives of The Courtyard are permitted to enter, with exception of staff directly related to the 'Cultivate@Courtyard' team.

16. The judges' decision is final.

17. There will be three finalists which will go through to the second phase of 'Cultivate@Courtyard' Visual Arts Project. Unless the Judges feel that other candidates are deserving of the opportunity.

18. Finalists will be contacted by telephone or email. It is the finalists' responsibility to get back to the promoter within 14 days to confirm their eligibility and acceptance to take part in phase two of 'Cultivate@Courtyard' Visual Arts Project.

19. If finalists do not respond within 14 days, their prize will be forfeit.

20. The promoter is The Courtyard, Hereford Centre for the Arts, Edgar Street, Hereford. HR4 9JR

21. Submission of an entry will be taken to mean acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Registered Charity No. 1067869 VAT No. 880 9945 68
Registered Office: The Courtyard Trust,
Herefordshire's Centre for the Arts, Edgar Street, Hereford, HR4 9JR
Registered in England No. 3342581